ABSTRACTS OF SUPREME COURT CASES

The following are abstracts from NC Supreme Court Cases, located in the search room at the NC State Archives. These records are not indexed. To obtain the case desired you must first scan NC Reports (the published version of the Supreme Court). After obtaining the title of the case you want, you then must go into the microfilm room of the main search room and look at the index on microfilm and obtain a specific case number in the right top corner. You then fill out a card and put down this case number and they will pull the original files of the court case which may or may not have more information than found in NC Reports.

The large number at the beginning of each abstract in the case number.

BIBLE AND FAMILY RECORDS

MEEKS BIBLE

The following article appeared in the Daily Reflector on November 12, 1904. It is fortunate that this remnant was left, since the bible was burned when the library in the Masonic Temple was destroyed by fire on Feb. 24, 1910.

An Old Book Names and Dates of the Long Ago

"W. A. Hyman, of Belvoir township, brought us a very old book which he says can be presented to the public library of the End of the Century Book Club. The book bears the title 'The Psalms of David imitated in the language of the New Testament.' It contains the Psalms in meter as well as a number of 'Hymns and Spiritual Songs.' The book bears date of being printed in London in 1772 but is one of the twenty-third edition. An 'advertisement to the readers' that preceded the title page is dated Dec. 1st, 1718. It is the old style print in which the letter 's' is largely used for 'c'.

"The early owners of the book used it as a family record as the blank leaves and some of the margins contain names of people with the date of their birth. One of these is 'Francis Meeks, born Sept. 27th, 1765.' At another place is the name 'Robert Teal' without any date. Another has 'Amos Teal born Jany. 15th, 1833.' The book also shows the name Lany Teel, daughter of Bradberry and Mary Teel. born 7th day of Nov, 1780, and James Teel, son of the same parents, born Aug 5th 1777.

"Further on about midway the book is a page devoted to the Deloach family on which are the names Abraham Deloach, son of Mary Deloach, born July 21st, 1775; Ann Deloach, daughter of Jas. Deloach, born Aug. 2nd 1768, and another child born in 1766.

"There are other indistinct names but the foregoing are sufficient to show it is a very old book and gives the names of people who lived a very long time ago."

ABSTRACTS OF REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONS

Copy of pension contributed by Stephen Denmark of Seattle, Wa.

FURNA CANNON

Deposition of Furna CANNON, age 72, of Henderson County, Kentucky, July 23, 1832.

He says he entered the Militia of North Carolina sometime in the year 1778 under Captain Samuel BARROW, General WILLIE or ALLEN and General JONES of Halifax County. He served for three months, when he was discharged and returned home for about twelve months. He was then drafted as a substitute and served another three months under Col. SUDGRAVE and Major HOGG. He was then discharged at Smithfield on the Neuse River. He then was drafted again under Captain George FAULKNER, the whole troops being commanded by Col. William GORHAM. CANNON served not quite three months when he was discharged and returned home for near twelve months. He was again called out and drafted under General John SIMPSON and served nearly three months, when he was discharged again. He then volunteered for three weeks under Col. John SALTER.

Furna CANNON has no documentary evidence, all his discharges being lost. He knows of no person except Pugh CANNON of Maury County, Tennessee, who can testify to his service.

Signed: Furna CANNON

Henry DIXON and Levin W. ARNETT, both of Henderson County, Kentucky testify for Furna CANNON.

Furna CANNON states he was born in Pitt County, NC on December 3, 1761, recorded in the (family) book. He was drafted and once served as substitute for Isaac BLOUNT. He says he remembers Col. William WASHINGTON who commanded the Virginia Black Troops. William B. CANNON. Capt. Henry DIXON and Levin W. ARNETT certify to the above.

Furna CANNON hereby appoints John BOYLE of Henderson County, Kentucky his attorney to receive what is due him from the Secretary of the Treasury from March 4, 1831 to March 4, 1832. Also CANNON makes certificate to enroll his name on the roll of the Kentucky agency for annual pension payments.

Signed: Furna CANNON, July 23, 1832

Application of Sarah CANNON, filed December 1853.

Sarah CANNON, age 83, widow of Furna CANNON, appears to get a widows pension. She states they were married October 3, 1792 by Lewis CANNON, J.P. of Craven County, NC. Furna CANNON was born Dec. 3, 1761 and died June 17, 1837. Sarah CANNON was born February 24, 1771.

Affidavit of Willie SUGG, Henderson County, Kentucky, December 2, 1853.

He states he knew Furna CANNON in 1809 or 1810 in Pitt County, NC and he was married to Sarah BURNET. They shortly thereafter moved to Henderson County, Kentucky and lived there until Furna's death.

Letter from John BARNETT, son-in-law of Furna CANNON to Honorable B. G. GRAY, dated January 23, 1852.

BARNETT stated that his father-in-law was named Furney CANNON. He was married in Pitt County, NC. Furney died in Henderson County, Kentucky on June 17, 1837. BARNETT stated that Mrs. Sarah CANNON is living with him and is 84 years old. He states that Furney and Sarah CANNON removed to Henderson County, Kentucky in early 1812. There was difficulty in understanding the spelling of Furney CANNON on early documents. BARNETT says that when his wife's father was a youth in North Carolina there were many young persons of the same name and was called by them Furney Fold CANNON to distinguish them, but after he moved to Kentucky he was just called Furney CANNON, since he had no middle name.

In all of us there is a hunger, marrow deep, to know our heritage
- to know who we are and where we came from. Without this enriching knowledge, there is a hollow yearning. No matter what our attainments in life, there is still a vacuum, an emptiness, and the most disquieting loneliness.

QUERIES

Our family Bible states that Elizabeth E. NELSON, daughter of Charity NELSON, was born in 1830. Elizabeth married William WALLACE GALLAWAY of Chocowinity, Beau. Co., NC in 1848. Her grandson-in-law, William Oliver ELLIS, was the informant for her death certificate in 1912, stating that Elizabeth was born in Beau. Co., NC. Have been unable to determine Elizabeth's parentage. Who was Charity NELSON? (Miss or Mrs.), and was she from Beau, Pitt, or Crav. Co., NC?
Elizabeth ROSS; 307 S. Library St.; Greenville, NC 27858 919-752-5609

William Oliver ELLIS was the son of Oliver M. ELLIS and Susan GODLEY of Chocowinity district, Beau. Co., NC. All evidence shows that Susan was the daughter of Jesse GODLEY, and the granddaughter of Elias GODLEY and his wife Lydia PEARCE/PIERCE who lived between the Beau. and Pitt Co. lines. Who was the wife of Jesse GODLEY? Jesse died in 1832.

James ROBSON Sr. b. NC 1752 d. 15 June 1832 Wayne Co., Ga. md. Mary E. _____ b. 1757 d. Oct. 1834. Son Wiley ROBSON b. Pitt Co., NC md. _____ CASON. Folks Huxford genealogist stated her name was Lenora and her father James CASON. Folks also stated James ROBSON Sr., Wiley ROBSON & James ROBSON JR. returned to Pitt County and while there Wiley collected wife's portion of her father's estate. Pitt DB-BB, Pgs 456-460-461 lists sales but no mention of a CASON. Pitt DB-R Pg 87 (17 Dec. 1807) lists James CASON giving property to Lucinda CASON, Daniel CASON, Susannah (CASON) HATTAWAY & Patsy CASON. No Lenora! Could Wiley's wife be Lucinda rather than Lenora?
